Club Uniform Policy Santa Rosa United Uniform Policy

The Uniform policy fosters a sense of professionalism and unity within the Club by demonstrating greater respect for the uniform and an 'academy' look at trainings.

Games, Tournaments and Travel.

1. Each player shall wear club uniforms at each game. This includes official uniforms gold and blue. The proper shirts, socks and shorts will be worn. Player will have socks pulled up and shirts tucked at all times from warm up to the end of the games.
2. Each player will wear official sweat-suit to and from the game and when traveling. Once again this applies to all members of the team.

Training:

1. Players will wear blue shorts, white socks and official club T-shirt to all training sessions.
2. Blue shorts and white socks should be as generic as possible.
3. In the event of cold weather players should wear the club sweat-suit.

All uniforms are to be same across the Club, no exceptions. In the event our players do not conform to these policies, it is up to the coach and manager of the team to enforce to policy using their best judgment; this should include taking away playing time for repeated or serious violations. In the event coaches do not enforce the policy, the Club will use its best judgment to develop appropriate sanctions.

The logo's on training uniforms, and any Santa Rosa Uniforms will be the same. Any requests to add team logo or name, or sponsors, must be approved by Santa Rosa United Board of Directors
